Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed:

November is the month of Remembrance in the Catholic Church, and in this way we end the liturgical year. November 2nd All Souls Day

This day we especially recall the names of those parishioners who have died during the last 12 months.

We assure their families that we join in prayerful solidarity with them. We open our: November Book of Remembrance

'All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.' (Catechism of Catholic Ch. par.1030)

November is the month we traditionally pray for those who have died. All our invited to enter into the November Book of Remembrance the names of family, friends, and loved ones who have died, wherever they have lived their lives. We then pray for them during the eucharist that any purification still to be undergone may soon be complete.

During the week forthcoming 4th-8th November, Fr Graham is involved in evening catechesis in Holy Family Parish Addlestone.

During the week beginning Monday November 11th, Fr Graham is at the Clergy In-Service at Ladywell until Thursday 14th 9.30am Mass. Please leave enquiries/mass int. requests, in an envelope with contact name and telephone, at the sacristy. Thank you.
