 On  Monday  22nd  June,  I  will  find out  what  class  I will  be  in  for  next year. The  classes  are  being  mixed.

 Everyone  will  get  at  least  one  friend. It  does not matter if  some  friends  are not  in  my  class  as  I  do not get  to  play  or  chat  to  my  friends  in  lessons  anyway.

 I can  chat  to  and  play  with  anyone  I  like  outside.

 There  will  be  lots of  chances  to  spend  time  with  my  new teacher and new class before we finish for the summer holidays. On Monday, I will go to my new classroom with my new class and meet my new teacher after break. I will stay with them until lunch. After lunch, I will stay with my new class friends but will be taught as normal by one of my year group teachers now.
