

Countries of the United Nations have signed the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child which protects children's rights.

During Children's Mental Health Week 2024 this year our Wellbeing Champions are raising awareness about article 12 of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child.

Article 12

You have the right to an opinion and for it to be listened to and taken seriously.

Art Competition!

- To raise awareness of the right to be heard, we are running an art competition with the theme 'This is me'.
- Entries will be due in Monday 19th February after half term.
- Artwork can be a self-portrait or a piece of art expressing something about yourself such as a hobby or interest.
- Entries will be photographed and displayed along the front fencing as a pop-up gallery.
- The Wellbeing Champions will choose winning entries for each year group.
- Artwork can be done in any medium (paints, collage, charcoal, chalk pastels etc.) but must be named and labeled with your class.
