What is The R.E. Council?

What do we do?

Every week, the R.E. council go to the conference room for meeting with Mrs. Murphy to discuss the religious side of St. Anne's school and upcoming events.

Who are we?

Diego Effuso, Luke Froggatt, Rhys Edwards, Mariya Shiju, Gabby ChaCha-Roe, Anna Ossei-Yeboah, Enya Mahamud-Kelly, Thomas Corrigan and Ethan Aure.

Why we wanted to be R.E. council?

We wanted to be R.E. Council because we wanted to show our dedication and qualities for the religion of the school.

Qualities?

Friendship, Love, Respect, Responsibility, Perseverance and dedication.

Year 5! You can write your letter to be in the R.E. Council and give them in to Mrs. Murphy.

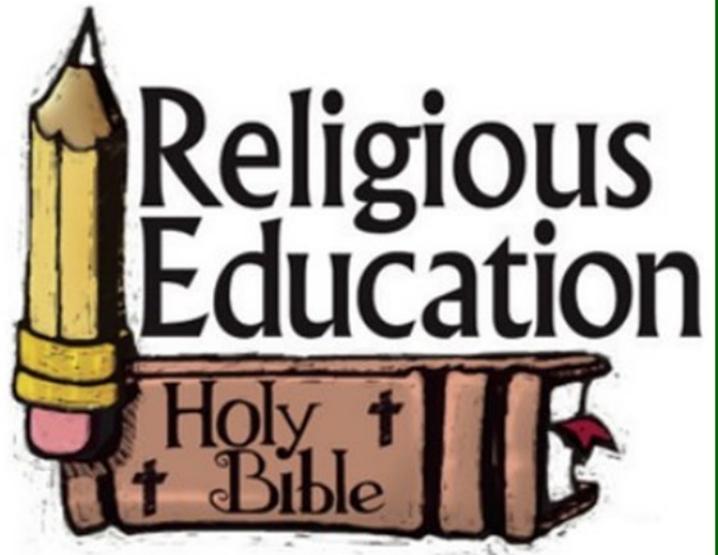

Religious Side of St. Anne's

Throughout the year the whole school has been doing some RE topics in each year group. Reception has been doing a topic called 'Good Friends'. Year 1: Being Sorry. Year 2: Treasures, Year 3: Choices, Year 4: Building Bridges, Year 5: Freedom and Responsibility & Year 6: Healing.

In reception they are learning about good friends. Good friends are people who are always there for you when you struggle in sad times.

Year 1 is doing a topic called being sorry, which means that they want their sins to be forgiven.

Year 2 have been learning about treasures. It means they value something they have like their families and friends

Year 3 have been learning about making choices. Some choices are good and some can be bad. Sometimes we make bad choices but we do them for the good.

Year 4 is reflecting on a topic that can relate to other, building bridges. You can build bridges with your friends but sometimes they can break but you can always build them back up again.

Year 5 have been learning about freedom and responsibility. When you get older you have more freedom but you also have more responsibilities.

Year 6 have been learning about healing the sick and caring for those in need. Have you ever needed to look after somebody?
